Adjudicator

Kay Tucker

AGSM,ARCM,LTCL,PGCA,PGCE

Kay was born in Sheffield, Yorkshire and began her studies on the cello at the age of 12, continuing at the Guildhall School of Music and Drama. Her portfolio career has combined teaching and adjudicating with performing as a soloist, chamber musician and orchestral player.

Since 1998, Kay has been in popular demand as an adjudicator throughout the UK, having worked at well over 200 festivals including the National Festival of Music for Youth.

'Encouragement' is a key word in all aspects of Kay's work and she has great joy in working alongside musicians of all ages, particularly the very young.

Kay's passion for teaching led her to develop an early years strings & general musicianship system known as 'Stringbabies', which has become well established and accepted as a leading approach in strings teaching. In 2016, Musicbabies for Recorder was published, being the first adaptation of Stringbabies for a non-stringed instrument.

Over recent years, Kay has worked as a consultant to Trinity Guildhall, selecting and co-selecting repertoire for graded exams and diplomas. She has been a Trustee and member of the Executive Council of the European String Teacher's Association (ESTA), and was presented with the ESTA award for exceptional services in recognition of her work in initiating the Post Graduate Certificate in string teaching accredited by Chichester University.

The Millennium Competition

Competitors are required to present a programme consisting of THREE solos, each chosen from a different discipline as listed below.

Competitors may repeat only one item performed in another class during the festival but cannot duplicate anything between the Millennium and Confinemento classes.

The adjudicator will take into consideration the quality of the performance and the choice of programme.

The Millennium Competition disciplines are:

The Confinemento Classes

The Confinemento classes (named after the confinement suffered during the countrywide lockdown due to the Covid pandemic) was introduced for the 2021 online festival. The classes were very popular and we have decided to retain them. This category acts as a memorial to how Covid changed the world and this festival, and challenged us to work and think differently.

Competitors are required to present a programme consisting of TWO solos, each chosen from a different discipline as listed below.

Competitors may repeat only one item performed in another class during the festival but cannot duplicate anything between the Millennium and Confinemento classes.

The adjudicator will take into consideration the quality of the performance and the choice of programme.

The Confinemento Competition disciplines are:

1. Singing
